battle of the steamship Mauretania with gale-swept seas.

A. C. MacKintyre and Leo Wolfson of New York, the first with a sprained arm and Wolfson with a gashed head, were the most severely injured of the score of passengers and crew bruised and cut from being flung about as the ship met mountainous waves.

The liner was two days out of New York when it ran into a fury of the sea which has seldom been equaled. A southwesterly gale, of an intensity estimated at one time to have attained eighty miles, an hour, struck the "world's fastest liner" on her quarter and caused such pitching and tossing that Capt. Me-Neil ordered all passengers off the decks.

The wave of selling left many old favorites with closing prices substantially lower. They included Byers Company, down $3.75; General Motors, old, down $1.25; Radio, down $9; National Tea, down $15. and Anaconda, down $1.25. Favorable news developments of the day, such as importation of upward of $8.000,000 in gold and extra dividend declarations, undoubtedly helped in the recovery of the market. Generally easy money conditions also were a factor. The ticker had another heavy day of it, closing fifty-one minutes behind the market after struggling to keep abreast of trading too great for immediate recording after the first half-hour.

Officials of the line said that apparently none of the children on the Vestris had been reported rescued. There were more than twenty children on the Vestris when she left New York.

The exact cause of the foundering of the vessel has not been determined. Officials of the line here denied printed reports that the master of the Vestris, Capt. William J. Carey, had sent them wireless messages blaming the shifting of the cargo for the letting and subsequent sinking of the ship.

CAUSE OF DISASTER

CAUSE OF DISASTER

From Admiral Taylor came clews as to how loss of life occurred. He reported that only eight boats and a makeshift raft were able to get away from the fast-sinking liner, and that one of these boats and the makeshift raft overturned.

Probably scores of men and women were spilled into a heavy sea when this happened, and the overturning most probably was caused in the launching of the small craft. An even more dreadful significance was given to the last few minutes of the Vestris above water, when Admiral Taylor reported that "a number of dead from the Vestris had been sighted."

Other reports from vessels of the rescue fleet indicate that survivors had been taken off debris floated from the lost Vestris, persons who had been clinging for hours to bits of wreckage. In another instance the only occupant of a lifeboat which nad survived the stormy seas, were a woman and two small children. This boat had held probably thirty or forty persons, perhaps even more.

cations which contradicted each other.

The Berlin radioed at about noon that nine lifeboats, including one entirely empty, had been found and that only one boat and one raft were unaccounted for. At about the same time Capt. Cummings of the American Shipper sent a message that he had picked up five lifeboats and that he was hunting for the four remaining boats and one raft. From Norfolk the Coast Guard heard that "all passengers had been rescued with the exception of one from the life raft."

A dispatch from the steamship Berlin said one of the men rescued by it had been found riding the waves in a lifebeit. He told a story that was indicative of more tragic tales to come. A woman and two children, said the survivor, were riding a makeshift raft near where he was found. He also said he had seen several other women on a raft. The first personal story of the wisaster was contained in a brief radio message from Mrs. Norman K. Batten of Los Angeles to relatives here. Mrs. Batten is one of those paboard the Wyoming. SCENE RECONSTRUCTED

At nightfall, with Admiral Taylor's decisive message and also by reading between the lines from New York fragmentary radio reports during the day the naval authorities read this story from the sinking of the liner:

Capt. Carey, hoping that a relief ship could come up in time, deferred as long as possible the order to leave the ship was given.

As the ship was down by the beam end and listed far to one side it was impossible to launch all of the fourteen lifeboats, the motor launch and the several rafts. They did the best they could.

Uncertainty as to how many lifeboats and rafts still are missing added to the apprehension. Almost simultaneously radio messages, largely contradictory, were received here by the Coast Guard, Radio Corporation of America, Lamport & Holt Line, and naval communitation.

Shipping Board Sends Praise to Capt. Cummings

Young Commander Already Had Won Honors

His Vessel First to Reach Vestris's Survivors

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13. (A)-The Shipping Board adopted a resolu-tion today expressing appreciation and pride in the courage and skill displayed by Capt. Schuyler F. ings and the officers and crew of the American Shipper in the rescue of 123 persons from the wrecked steamer Vestris off the Virwrecked steamer Vestris off the Virginia Capes.

The life-saving feat of Capt. Cummings, whose vessel was the first to reach the stricken Vestris, however, was not the first rescue at sea for which he has received commendation. In 1925 he performed a rescue for which he was cited last year in a Congressional report by the House Committee on Commerce.

On November 2, 1925, Capt. Cummings, new master of the American Shipper, received distress calls from the Holland-American steamship Andijk, bound for Rotterdam. The Andijk had encountered a gale which had washed away her wheel house and bridge. Her lifeboats had been battered to pieces and her emergency compasses were wrecked. Capt. Cummings went to the assistance of the Andijk and towed her to the Azores Islands, a distance of 370 miles. This rescue the committee called "a splendid piece of efficient seamanship and navigation on the part of the master of STEAMER SAVED tion on the part of the master of the steamship American Shipper." Capt. Cummings's home is in New York. Only 37 years of age. he has been master of the American Shipper since 1922. The American Shipper is one of the few United States Shipping Board vessels which is manned by an all-American crew.

MESSAGE SENT Chairman O'Connor of the Ship-sing Board wirelessed Capt. Cum-services of the all-American crew of the American Shipper who, under your direction, effected heroic rescue of survivors from the Vestris. Par-ticularly inspiring that your rescue comes at a time when the people of the United States have just de-termined to make powerful and per-manent fleets of merchant vessels carrying the American flag to all parts of the world."

The Shipping Board also declared parts of the world."

The Shipping Board also declared the American Shipper in her reports had indicated that she was farthest of the group of vessels that raced to the scene of the disaster and was the first to sight any of the Vestris lifeboats and to effect the rescue of survivors. the American Shipper was 160 miles away and arrived at the scene of

Your Castle...in MIRAMAR ESTATES

OUT ON the sloping hills of Miramar, overlooking the sea, people are making real their dreams of a "castle in Spain." They, like you, visioned often the home of their hopes ... and shattered them with a sigh. Now they are building in stone and concrete, brick and mortar... building for the ages.

These people would be glad to have you join them... to share with them the escape from commercial environment, the freedom of outdoors, the ever delightful vista of the ocean, of wooded canyons, broad and winding avenues, beauty, serenity, comfort, contentment.

There is now more building activity in Miramar Estates than in any similar residential community. On the present list of property owners you will find many names with which you are familiar... fellow townsmen, friends, men and women of influence and leadership both socially and in a

Some of them have shrewdly foreseen the value of investment in Miramar. Others have chosen Miramar for their future home. And we repeat: these people would be glad to have you join them! Let us take you over the property carefully, and explain the provisions that have been made for your permanent comfort and pleasure.

Falling Hair, Dandruff Warn of "Alopecia Pityrodes" Which Brings Baldness

in Two to Seven Years Analysis of Records of Microscopic Examinations Made by Nationally Known Hair Specialist Show "Alopecia Pityrodes" Cause of 85% of Baldness. New Formula to Stop Disease, Restore Scalp to Healthy Condition and Grow New Hair, Originated by Prof. John H. Austin, Proved Remarkably Effective in 1033

Test Cases.

Scientific research by Prof. John H. Austin, nationally known hair specialist, has disclosed the cause of 85% of baldness, and 1033 test cases have proved the effectiveness of a new formula. Now, warned in time by falling hair, oily hair, dandruff and itching scalp you can arrest the progress of the disease, restore the scalp to normal healthy condition, grow new hair and prevent baldness with this remarkable new formula.

Microscopic Examinations Reveal Truth

These discoveries of Prof. Austin are the outcome of over 40 years active practice as a hair and scalp specialist. For the past three years, he has kept accurate records of each case coming under his personal observation; records showing the scalp disorder indicated by microscopic examination, the treatment recommended and results obtained. A recent analysis of these recommended and results obtained. A recent analysis of these recommended and results obtained. A recent analysis of these recommended and results obtained. The Signs of "Alopecia Pityrodes." How to Tell if You Have It.

The Warning trouble is "Alopecia Pityrodes," a serious trouble often mistaken for dandruff, which occurs in two forms: the first starts with a slight ecaling of the scalp, producing dry, flaky scales like dandruff making the hair dry and brittle; the second causes the hair to be oily and stringy, with thick grayish white, greasy scales on the scalp. Sometimes a terrible itching is also noticed. Both forms cause falling of the hair, which gradually increases as the bacteria multiply, until baldness results in from two to seven years.

Prevent Approaching Baldness—Grow New Hair Now

"Formula G" penetrates to the very roots of the hair, and there attacks and destroys the destructive bacteria. It cleanses the scalp and stops itch.ng immediately. It stops falling hair, and by stimulating, reviving and nourishing the hair roots promotes a luxuriant growth of rich, lustrous hair.

Get "Formula G" today. Start this treatment which Prof. Austin actually proved effective in his private practice in hundreds of the most stubborn cases of hair and scalp troubles.

Speaking to members of the Rotary Club, Fisher paid glowing tribute to the manner in which scores of civic and commercial organizations throughout the State, despite their diversified interests, have pulled together for the common good, showing a "team play" which he described as "the greatest single factor in California's astounding growth, particularly in the last ten years." In thus working in harmony and unison toward a common goal they have wiped out the filmsy mental barriers of north and south, coast and inland, he averred, and have brought the State to the threshold of "an era of unprecedented growth and prosperity."

In summarizing accomplishments he declared:

that must be completed before he leaves his home here Sunday for Los Angeles Harbor to begin the voyage to South America.

The President-elect started his day with a conference with Asst. U. S. Atty.-Gen. Donovan, whom he had summoned here from Washington. Then he turned to some of the many personal matters pressing on him and during the course of the day visited San Francisco to do some shopping.

Donovan is regarded as the outstanding figure of those mentioned for the post of Attorney-General in the Hoover Cabinet. He reached here today, after flying from Chicago to Kansas City and thence to Los Angeles, completing his journey by train from the Southern California city to Palo Alto.

CLOSE ADVISER

The assistant, Attorney-General long has been a friend of the President-elect and was one of his closest advisers during the long campaigns, both for the nomination and for election. He aided Mr. Hoover in the formulation of his plans during the heat of the struggle for the Presidency, and the two think similarly along many lines.

Donovan probably will remain in California until after Mr. Hoover sails next Monday for South America.

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 13. (P)—
Excelsior today published an editorial in which it says: "Not Herbert Hoover's fifteen words of Spanish nor all the words in the Spanish iditionary will suffice to remove the atmosphere of suspicion and resentment in Latin Americas toward the United States, unless the forthcoming journey of the President-elect results in acts of concrete friendship."

The editorial opened with the statement that he is an able statesman. The article drew a comparison between his attitude and the "big stick policy of Roosevelt."

But it pointed out that while the exchange of handshakes and smiles will be good statesmanship, yet the sincerity of these manifestations of friendship must be proved in a more substantial manner." It concluded: "The Latin American republics ask only one thing—that they be allowed to live their own lives in their own houses."

The Motor Carriers' Association of California today joined with the Pickwick Stages and the Motor Transport Company in the action of the bus lines in seeking to bar the Southern Pacific from operating motor busses on the Monterey Peninsuls.

The Southern Pacific Company was permitted recently by the State Raifroad Commission to discontinue certain train service on the peninsula and to substitute bus service. The Pickwick and Motor Transport companies sought a rehearing on the ground that the Southern Pacific was a foreign corporation and that the Raifroad Commission had no authority to grant it a bus-line permit.

In the meantime, however, the Republican electors, on their own merits, amassed a total of 1,151,773 votes in 9024 of the State's 9085 precincts, and the Democratic electors gathered 611,591. The margin of difference as it stands, is 540,182 votes. It is estimated the State at large will supply 3000 or more absent votes, and there will be several thousand additionally which were cast for the Prohibition electors. By action of that party's State convention the names of the Prohibition and Republican electors are the same, which will give the Republican party the benefit of those votes. Indications therefore, are that the complete vote will show a Republican majority almost equal to the total vote polled by the Democrats. In the same number of counter United States Senator Johnson polled 1,078,536 votes against the 261,674 of his Democratic rival, Minor Moore. MORE TO COUNT promptly developed. Above all things the function of a minority party is educational in character. It will not do for the rank and file of the American people to be intensely interested in the issue and party program for a couple of months before election and then permit that interest to die out when the result is announced.

"Political platforms and political promises are not self-enacting, The political history of the United States clearly indicates that every progressive step, every government re-full and complete presentation of the facts is easier to do today than it was years ago with the use of the radio and the increasing interests of our young people in public affairs. It must be remembered that while the political party may seriously divide public thought and public opinion throughout the country during the progress of the campaign, after the American people have made their decision, the man selected is not the president of the Republican party, but the President of the United States. He is the President of all the people and as such he is entitled to all the cooperation of every citizen in the development of a program calculated to promote the welfare and the best interests of this country.

"He is entitled to a fair opportunity to develop such a program. Only when he fails to accomplish it does his administration become the subject of proper criticism by the opposition party. Premature criticism not only fails of its purpose, but often results to the disadvantage of the critic himself.

LOOK TO FUTURE

LOOK TO FUTURE Party responsibility is not confined to its handling of governmental affairs. A political party must also be accountable to the people of the United States for the management of its internal affairs, and no political party can afford to accept the support of forces for which it refuses to accept responsibility. It will not do to let bitterness, rancor or indignation over the result blind us to the one outstanding fact, that above everything else we are Americans. No matter with what

PRINCESS HAS BIRTHDAY

Italy Revives Talk of Giovanna's Marriage With Charles of Belgium and Aviator as Candidates

ROME, Nov. 13. (P)—Princess Giovanna, third of the four daughters of the King and Queen of Italy, is 21 years of age today.

Her birthday served to revive talk of her marriage. Among those mentioned as candidates for her hand the leader in point of rank, at least, is the 34-year-old King Boris of Bulgaria.

least, is the 34-year-old King Boris of Bulgaria.

Always either denied or ignored wed a nonbeliever in Christianity.

There is another possibility before the Princess: That of becoming the bride of Prince Charles of Belgium, and as such Countess of Flanders. There have been hints that it would cement the ties between Italy and Bulgaria, which is a neighbor of Jugo-Blavia; it would tend to strengthen pro-Italian sympathies in the Balkans. But there have been no outward advances by the young Bulgar monarch, and the Princess has spent the summer and autumn quietly with her family at Santa Anna Di Valdieri, up in the mountainous north of 'Italy and later at San Rossore, near Pisa.

NOGALES (Ariz.) Nov. 13. (P)— Col. Herbert H. N. Lehman, Lieu-tenant-Governor-elect of New York,

To the first half-million new Ford owners

To the half-million men and women who have received new Fords in the last eleven months, there is no need to dwell on the performance of the car.

You have tested its speed on the open road. In traffic you have noted its quick acceleration and the safety of its brakes. You know how it climbs the hills. On long trips and over rough stretches you have come to appreciate its easy-riding comfort. Continuous driving has proved its economy of operation and low cost of upkeep.

This is an invitation to you to take full advantage of the service facilities of the Ford dealer organization so that you may continue to enjoy many thou-sands of miles of carefree, economical motoring.

The point is this. You have a great car in the new Ford. It is simple in design, constructed of the best materials and machined with unusual accuracy. It is so well-made, in fact, that it requires surprisingly little attention. Yet that doesn't mean it should be neglected. Like every other fine piece of machinery, it will serve you better and longer if given proper care.

One of the best ways to do this is to take your car to the Ford dealer every 500 miles for oiling and greasing and a checking-up of the little things that have such a great bearing on long life and continuously good performance.

Such an inspection may mean a great deal to your car. To you it means thousands upon thousands of miles of motoring with-out a care—without ever lifting

Ford dealers everywhere have been specially trained and equipped to service the new Ford. You will find them prompt and reliable in their work, fair in their charges, and sincerely eager to help you get the greatest possible use from your car for the longest period at a minimum of trouble and expense. That is the true meaning of Rord Service Ford Service.

THE crusade against the universal A scourge of constipation has en-listed some of the greatest scientific minds of Europe.

Among them is the distinguished figure of Dr. Kurt Henius, of Berlin. Professor at the great University of Berlin, former physician to members of the royal family of Germany, writer, expert on intestinal diseases-his verdict in regard to constipation is note-

"Yeast, taken internally," he said in a recent public statement in the American press, "has proved that it can destroy bacteria in the intestines by setting up altered conditions of life." Dr. Henius confirms the verdice of thousands of physicians in the United States who prescribe yeast for constipation and its many accompanying ills. They know that headaches, indigestion, depression, frequent colds, em-barrassing skin disorders—are often due to clogged intestines and are needless handicaps to health.

Fleischmann's Yeast is fresh yeastnot dried or killed. It contains millions of living, active yeast plants. As these pass daily through your intestinal tract they combat harmful poisons and purify the whole system. For real, clear-skinned, clear-eyed health eat 3 cakes of Fleischmann's Yeast daily; one before or between meals, plain or in water (hot or cold). To get full benefit you must eat it regularly and over a sufficient period of time. Start now. The results will delight you. Buy two or three days' supply at a time. It will keep in a cool, dry place. At all grocers and many leading cafeterias, lunch counters and soda fountains.

Where 90% of ailments start . . . This is the broad highway for health or illness. From throat to colon is one continuous ness. From throat to colon is one continuous tube. Poisons forming in a clogged colon quickly spread throughout the system. Here is where yeast works, keeping this entire tract clean, active and healthy. For clear eyes and skin, for the youth that only health can bring, eat Fleischmann's Yeast three times daily.

GROW OLD GRACEFULLY

ONLY the inexperienced builder passes lightly over such matters as upkeep, depreciation, insurance, painting and heating. And when he comes to build the second time, he knows from bitter experience that these are the really vital considerations.

Do you know why common brick is so frequently the choice of experienced home-owners when they plan their final, permanent homes?—it is because common brick quickly pays back its slightly higher initial cost through the elimination of repairs and painting, the great reduction of depreciation and insurance charges and the

For the man who is preparing to build more substantially and more attractively than the average, we have just issued a de-luxe book, "Homes that Grow Old Gracefully". This 36-page book contains a fund of information and suggestion to home owners. Its 48 illustrations show some of the most attractive new homes in Southern California. First Anniversary Under New Owner Calls for Fete

Special Program Arranged for Event Tonight

During Last Year

BY DR. RALPH L. POWER Just a year ago KHJ was turned over by The Times to its new owner, Don Lee. The first program under the new regime was on Mon-day, November 14, when the for-mer practice of allent Mondays was discarded.

mer practice of silent Mondays was discarded.

The initial program was one which carried out a policy of having new groups and soloists for the radio public. During the twelve months under the direction of Mr. Lee scores of new radio artists have made their bow before the microphone and several old ones have returned to the feld.

So all of the facilities of the Don Lee station, KHJ, will be engaged in birthday celebration today and this evening.

PRODUCING FIRM TELLS OF PLANS

Belasco Bringing "Front Page" and "High Road" to Local Boards

Edward Belasco and Fred J. Butler, operators of the Belasco The-ater, have set forth their plans for the next few months of attractions in their own domain.

"Front Page," the Ben Hecht-Charles MacArthur comedy melodrama, has been secured by arrangement with Jed Harris, the eastern producer, and will open at the Belasco on December 30.

This play of newspaper men is credited with being the outstanding "smash" of the current eastern theatrical season. In book form it has run through five editions. It will be produced with a specially selected cast.

"The Front Page" will be followed by "The High Road," by Frederick Lonsdale, now an established New York success. This will be done with a popular feminine star in the leading role.

Owing to the inability to secure, at this time, a suitable cast, the opening of the David Belasco production of "Lulu Belle" has been postponed. It will follow "The High Road," and certain stars, now under contract in the East, will come to Los Angeles for the engagement, it is added.

Seiter Hopes to Leave All Laughs Behind

It looks as if William A. Seiter, whose name, along with that of Reginald Denny's, has become almost a synonym for "fast-moving farce," is going to become a director of serious drama.

"Happiness Ahead" for Colleen Moore with Edmund Lowe, a drama and one in which Colleen was said to have given her best dramatic performance, turned the tables. Seiter is now making plans for Corinne Griffith's new film from the story, "Prisoners," by Franz Molnar. Amid chuckles he confeases that the prospect of leaving comedy for tragedy, or even semitragedy, is making him very happy indeed.

"Reginald Denny and I did so many farces together that it seemed as though both of us became violently ill at the very sight of one another at the start of a new picture," he said. "It would take a day or two before we could work.

"I like drama better than comedy. The latter is more difficult to direct. It has to be done at a much faster tempo. In a drama if you have a story to work with you can usually follow it and work out its situations easily and naturally. But in a comedy, no matter what the story, 'gags' have to be inserted, pleces of business which will make laughs. And there's mo credit to be had for all your hard work. What do the critics say? 'Just another comedy!' Whereas in a drama you are at least taken seriously. Even directors have vanity, you know."

It was after several years of this farce-making at Universal, during which he did nine with Denny and one with his wife, Laura La Plante, that Seiter recently hung up his hat at First National.

Recently Beiter directed Dorothy Mackail and Jack Mulhail in a story of the San Francisco water front, a comedy in which Dorothy wanting to go to sea falls in love with a sailor who wants to sett.e down to farming. Titled "Water Front," the picture is at the Hill-street this week.

Star Satirized by Player Who Rode Blinds

Paul Ralli, who does the satirica

Paul Ralli, who does the satirical portrait of a star motion-picture actor in "Show People" at Loew's this week, a portrait which is supposed to represent John Gilbert, is a native of the lovely Island of Cypress in the Mediterranean off the Grecian coast.

Paul is a Greek. His father holds a position akin to that of a county superintendent of schools in this country. It was early planned that Paul, instead of becoming a teacher, should go to England and study international banking.

He went to England and there, by an uncle who was a high church dignitary and who has since died, was entered in the University of London and set at work studying finance, history of banking, coinage, political economy and kindred subjects.

Indon and set at work studying finance, history of banking, coinage, political economy and kindred subjects.

Paul studied religiously, but he found he wasn't very interested in finance. He paid a great deal of attention to things theatrical and found work at various times in unimportant productions.

He first became an acor in a Jack Buchanan revue in London.

After the revue closed he took what money he had and sailed for New York. He played in vaudeville about that city, but didn't make very much money, nor any great success. Anyway, he decided by this time he was interested in pictures and he really should go to Hollywood. His money was gone and inaxmuch as his family back in the Island of Cypress thought he had gone to America to engage in business and make money, they were sending on no more bank drafts.

So Paul with a newly found American friend "rode the bilinds" to Hollywood. "Like a hobo," he grins. "It seems they can shoot at you if they catch you. I didn't know that until we got to Omaha. Somebody shot at me there. But we went on to Nevada and there bought an old Ford which got us as far as Pasadena. And that was almost Hollywood."

This was about a year ago. Paul went to see Edmund Goulding, who found him a part in "Love," with Gilbert and Greta Garbo. Then came "The Wêter Hole" with Jack Holt; the Fanchon Royer production, "Life is Like That," and now "Show People" in which he has an important part.

As the result of the raid, which was made on the Kappa Alpha Pl house in order to recover thirty places of furniture which were stolen on Halloween, four members of the organization were fined $25 each and given suspended jail sentences, three others were taken to Juvenille Hall, and thirty students, whose names appeared in the guest book, were suspended from school today.

FOUR YOUTHS SENTENCED

When Attendance Officer Earl Smith made statements in the courtroom to the effect that the high-school fraternities are responsible for a great amount of drinking by local nigh-school students, Judge Riccardi informed him that that issue was not the issue in the present investigation.

When Superintendent of Schools John A. Sexson indicated to boys who surrounded him at the end of the hearing that every member of either sex who is known to have riolated the State law governing traternities will be suspended, there were shouts of, "Well, then you'll have to suspend everybody!" The General belief in Washington is that the resignation of Senator Outs will bring beet to Congress former Representative J. Napoleon Tincher—Poly" because of a combination of his name and rotundity of figure—a popular Kansan and the man who placed Curtis in nomination for the Vice-Presidency at Kansas City.

Mr. Tincher served five terms in the House and quit voluntarily. He was the only member of the Kansas delegation who fought the McNary-Haugen bill and voted against it. Curtis says publicly that he will not decide the question of his resignation from the Senate until some time early in January but indicates he will remain as Republican floor leader up to the time he steps out. Privately his confidents assert he will resign before Gov. Paulen's term ends so that Paulen may name their mutual friend. Tincher, to the Senatorship.

maid are correctly attired in white or light colored uni-forms of chambray or striped

The apron for morning wear is long to protect the uniform and is made of a slightly heavier fabric than for after-noons with plain embroidered wassar straps. If a cap is worn it should be plain to match the apron.

AMONG the new departineal white apron sets at J. W. Robinson Co. one finds dainty cream colored net aprons with collars, cufs, and caps to match trimmed with appliqued net and embroidery. One such apron with the 'casser straps inlaid in tiny pleat at the belt. Priced at $17.50 for the set, Others as low as $10.75.

THE UNDERLYING PRINCIPLES OF NEATNESS, DIGNITY AND CONVENTION IN UNIFORMING THE HOUSEHOLD FROM A WIDE ASSORTMENT AT J. W. ROBINSON CO. NOT JUST THE STYLES OF UNIFORMS AND APRONS SKETCHED HERE, BUT MANY OTHERS OF DIFFERENT KINDS OF FABRICS, TRIMMED IN A VARIETY OF WAYS, AT A GREAT MANY DIFFERENT PRICES, ARE AVAILABLE.

The Afternoon Uniform

THE conventional uniform for both the parlor maid and waitress for afternoon is of black or light grey soisette, or black silk. In the well-ordered household the maids all wear the same material and the same color in the morning. The waitress and parlor maid change into similar uniforms and accessories for the afternoon and evening.

Caps, collars, cuffs and aprons should all match and should be of some dainty sheer and fine material such as organdie, lawn, dotted swiss or net. They may be trimmed with very fine Swiss embroidery (as in the center sketch) or with bias folds, hemstitching or lace. The serving apron with straps over the shoulders may have ties to match or the apron with a wide black satin ribbon run through the belt is equally correct.

Uniforms of solsette priced beginning at $3.95. Black silk at $10. Black sateen at $6.75, Plain Apron sets at $1.95. More elaborate sets at $2.95 to $22.50.

Nursemaids

FOR the nursemaid employed in the home, white is correct at all times. With this uniform are worn white hose and shoes and if a cap is worn it should be of white lawn, the style to be selected by the mistress. In the morning the nursemaid may wear a plain colored chambray uniform with white collar and cuffs.

Nursemaids and nurses' uniforms of white poplin, well-tailored and professional in appearance are priced at $3.95 and $5.00. In other white fabrics beginning at $3.95.

The Cook

S POTLESS white, from head to foot, is the apparel of the cook. Upon her rests the well-being of the entire household and her uniform should be one thoroughly businesslike and neat. The cook wears a white uniform of linene or poplin with long or short sleeves, preferably short, so that her arms are free. Her cap should cover her hair. If she both cooks and serves the evening meal the uniform of the waitress should be donned about 4 o'clock.

Coo'cs' Uniforms of poplin at $3.95 or of linene at $1.95 with short sleeves, or $2.95 with long sleeves. Butchers' Aprons at $1.00. Cooks' Caps at 45c.

The General Maid in the Small House

IN THE small house where one maid is required to do many duties, including cleaning, cooking and serving, she wears a colored cotton uniform until shortly before dinner time. For luncheon she dons a clean fresh white apron over her colored dress

For serving the evening meal she wears black with the regulation serving apron with vassar straps.

Persons sometimes ask this question about shares of Incorporated Investors, and thereby show that they do not fully comprehend just what an investment in shares of Incorporated Investor

It is not a speculation. Nor an attempt to profit

An investment in shares of Incorporated Inves tors is essentially a supervised partnership with America's industrial leaders, in the busine will grow in volume and profit as America grows

An investor in shares of Incorporated Investors therefore, should sell only when he would dism partnership.-when he was convinced that all growth was at an end.

When American business genius and financia brilliance have dried up-when the home market and the world market no longer want the output of American farms and mines and factorieswill be time to sell. And only then.

Objects of Refinancing

Two years ago the management of the Associated System an extensive program of refinancing which contemplated:

Retirement of outstanding high coupon bonds and high divided rib preferred stocks of subsidiary properties.

 Issuance in exchange therefor of Associated System securities as the obligations of a larger and financially stronger organization lower interest rates. Refinancing accomplished has brought certain definite results

The credit standing of the Associated System has been so improved the recent financing was done with 4½% bonds as against 5½% has a year and a half ago.

2. The elimination of underlying securities has brought the beet, policy and common stocks of the Associated Gas & Electric Company can the actual physical properties so that they receive more directly as come from operations.

To date, over $115,000,000 par value of underlying retired. This has brought about substantial savings in Interand a simplification of capital structure through consolidated debt issues into major obligations of the Associated System.

Many mortgage issues have been called for redemption. The remaining in the Associated System is less than 10% of the entired tion. Many properties are entirely free of debt.

Harbor, for such facility already are proceeding.
Officials of the United States Public Health Service at San Pedro have received specific instructions regarding Allen Field, and are taking steps to admit any airplanes from foreign fields.
The arrangement will be simple inasmuch as Allen Field is in the port area and can be served by the different Federal inspecting staffs which also pass on ships arriving from foreign ports.

Practique will be accorded, and the planes from foreign lands also will be afforded customs, immigration and plant quarantine inspection as soon as procedure now started is consummated.

Forty ships will carry mail from Forty ships will carry mail from the foreign exchange postoffice at San Pedro during December, according to the schedule just worked out by C. P. Wright, postmaster. Twenty-four will carry mail to Panama, six stopping en route at Mexican and Central American ports. There will be five for Hawaii, two for the east coast of South America, four for Australia, two for New Zealand, three for the Orient, and one to the Dutch East Indies.

No such statement was ever made by me, or authorised by me, in any form whatsoever. I have never withdrawn my offer of the chief deputy-ship to Mr. McNabb and the same is now open to him for his acceptance at the time of my original offer of this position was refused by him on the basis that his health would not permit. Upon my insistence he finally accepted. I have every confidence in the integrity and ability of Mr. McNabb and regret exceedingly that any statement has been attributed to me insimating that I have withdrawn my offer of the position.

there was every indication that a bigger and better campaign was formally under way when 625 Comminity Chest workers met in the Sala del Oro at the Biltmore yesterday noon for the opening luncheon of the drive.

J. A. H. Kerr, campaign chairman, presided, and assured those present that the success of the drive this year is the direct responsibility of each individual concerned with it and could be measured by the effort that each one, himself included, gives to it. From the start which already has been made he said, the outlook is very encouraging.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Belcher yesterday announced the engagement of their daughter. Lina Basquette, to Peverell Marley, chief photographer for Cecil B. De Mille. The wedding will take place shortly after the first of the year.

Miss Basquette formerly was in the Ziegfeld Follies, at which time she met and married the late Bam Warner. Following his death she turned to motion pictures.

Marley has been chief photographer for De Mille for several years.

Miss Basquette will continue her film work.

San Pedran Takes Poison Rather Than Face Court on Lobster Charge

While officers of the municipal court at San Pedro were calling the name of Gustav Adolphus Dobeins to appear for trial, Dobeins lay writhing with dying agony in the cockpit of his little fishing boat in San Pedro harbor. He had taken a bottle of disinfectant with suicidal intent rather than face the court on the comparatively minor charge of catching lobsters under legal size.

Dobeins was discovered dying in his boat by his partner, Harry Olson, who said the man had been despondent following his arrest a few days ago on the fishing charge. He was taken to the San Pedro Hospital where he died.

Dobeins lived at 264 West Third street, San Pedro, and was 45 years of age. His body is at the Goodrich undertaking parlors.

Loyalty Luncheon Attended by 600 of Diocese; Speakers Also Discuss Coming Budget

Pledging increased efforts in promotion of permanent international peace and in behalf of the world-wide program for spiritual unification of all churches dedicated to the cause of Christ, more than 600 representatives of the Los Angeles Episcopal Diocese yesterday attended the loyalty luncheon at the Alexandria in honor of Bishop and Mrs. William B. Stevens, given under auspices of the general ch mittee for the convocation of Los Angeles churches.

Responding to a welcoming address by Dr. George Davidson who presented the honored guest with a MULHOLLAND handsome sermon case, Bishop Stevens expressed his gratitude for the loyal spirit manifest by all the churches and said the continuance of this harmonious spirit will go far toward helping fulfill the broad far toward helping fulfill the broad Southern California cities a de program planned for the Episcopal Church at the recent general convention.

TO PREPARE BUDGETS
Within the next two months, it was pointed out, the various churches of the diocese will prepare their budgets for the coming year, a 20 per cent increase in donations over 1937 having been asked of this diocese for 1938. The local diocese, one of the largest in the United States, has 135 clergymen, 23-282 communicants in forty-eight parishes, sixty-eight missions, 111 church schools, 9615 church school pupils, 1048 church school teachers and officers, three church boarding schools and fifteen church institutions.

SAN DIEGO PLANT

The San Diego property involves a centrally situated corner, 100 by 100 feet in size, in the heart of the retail district, improved with a modern four-story and basement Class B building built to carry additional floors and occupied by Parmelee-Dohrmann Company.

In San Jose the property on South First street, lot 55 by 137 feet, is improved with a modern three-story and basement mercantile building, situated directly opposite the site of the new retail department store of Hale Brothers.

Within the last three years the officials of the Dohrmann Commercial Company, operating housefurnishing stores in California, Washington and Oregon, were confronted with the serious problem of properly housing their expanding enterprises in the four cities referred to. Special building requirements for this type of business and the choice of precisely the locations desired made it necessary for them to deviate from a policy closely followed by them for over half a century and to enter into realty activities as subsidiary to their mercantile operation. This sale to the Investment Properties Corporation with leases back to the Dohrmann company makes it possible for the latter company to close its realty department and concentrate upon larger activities in its field of merchandising.

Dr. W. B. Pettus, president of the North China Language School at Peking, spoke optimistically of the progress of the Christianization of China and praised the missionaries of all churches for their work in bringing about better understanding between China and other countries.

Among other speakers who offered compliments to Bishop and Mrs. Stevens and pledged support of the program of the Diocese for the coming year were Dr. Leslie Learned of All Saints Church, Pasadens, William Benton of La Crescenta Mission, Rev. William Er. Knight and Reynold E. Blight.

By lee Shippey

When memory recalls your "happy school days" you may be surprised to see some very pathetic and even tragic figures flit across the scene—figures which added greatly to the hilarity of those days but make you feel sorry now. One was the fat boy whose stupidity in class gave you many a hearty laugh, and another was the gawky, foolishly smilling big girl with whom none of the other girls cared to play, who was so grateful for any crumb of companionship that at one minute she was the pliant catspaw of the bigger, tougher boys, and the next minute the butt of their merciless ridicule.

It is good to know that were those children living in Los Angeles today, their daily lives would be full of song and sunshine and their undeveloped abilities would be developed so as to insure their becoming good and useful citizens, entitled to respect. For the Los Angeles school system includes ten "development schools" for the special benefit of "backward" children, in which they are so happy and are making such progress that their parents also are both happy and proud.

"Subnermal" and "Genius"

"Subnormal" and "Genius"

This new idea in education is based on the proven theory that many an apparently subnormal child has latent abilities which, properly developed, will make him extremely useful and may even amount to genius. It is said that one world-famous singer had the mentality of a child in all matters outside his art, and one easily can believe that when he hears the pupils in a development school sing. Singing makes up a great part of their teaching. Children of foreign parentage who cannot learn English elsewhere can learn perfect enunciation and pronunciation in singing class. Three children from one of our development schools have made good on the concert stage. Some children who cannot learn to do wonderful things with saws and hammers, and in learning to weave correct patterns into curtains and various kinds of cloth they also learn the beginnings of arithmetic—learn to count, learn that one row of this and one row of that and one row of the other make three rows, and through love of their work come to understanding of the baffling numbers.

Some of us are used to school children who come home only to wreck the house. Children from these schools go home to beautify and build up. If they make handsome tables they are allowed to take them home, but must do some work for the school to pay for them—such as making tile. They learn to mend their shoes, so they are always well shod. Every girl who successfully makes a dress not only gets the dress but has her picture taken, wearing it. They learn to care expertly for trees and flowers and vegetable gardens, for chickens and goats and cattle. They transform the raw land around their schools into scenes of beauty and fruitfulness and he alithful sport. And they enjoy it all so that they come to school and stay late, and truancy is unknown.

The Part Health Plays

Yesterday we visited a development school in which there are 211 pupils. Only four of that number were absent. When the school opened medical inspection showed a total of more than 500 physical defects have been corrected. Undernourished children have been built up and children with a tendency to disease have been segregated and given special care. Weak children have cots to rest on about half the time. Posture exercises and athletic training and outdoor work help most of them to vigor when they have been graduated from that class. And bathing, tooth scrubbing and clothes washing are parts of the curriculum. Every boy goes straight to the showers when he comes from the athletic field, and every girl gets at least two baths a week. Some had to be taught to bathe—they jumped in with all their clothes on at first.

We were told that every graduate of that school has been placed in a job, at good wages.

soon to open in Pasadena. And there are too many buffers around the gates of the studios in movieland. However, we all may see the stars in the grass.

Another benefit will accrue. A general enthusiasm for keeping things comely will possess property holders. An owner with a weed patch will be shamed. Dooryards are likely to burst into bloom. Flowers are catching, just like the measles. Then other sections of the city and outside communities may contract the contagion.

Already the boosting stations of the

RECALLS "TIMES" EXPLOSION

In the old days the captains managed the team with the aid of various alumni coaches and the trainer, and everyone in college and among the alumnitook pride in the success of the team and what glory was won, it was for the team and the captain.

When I speak of colleges in the cold days I mean Princeton, Yale and Harvard, for they were the football colleges.

But now a very different state of affairs exists. The team is run for one thing, the glory of the coach. Who knows or cares in these days who is the captain of the team? Everyone knows the name of the coach at Yale, Harvard, Princeton and the teams are called Jones team or Roper, etc.

Does it bring giory to the colleges wild over the game and will pay any old price to see it. But will this last? Some time they will wake up and decide they are paying too much for their wilse was one and a bigger pay enviled over the game and will pay any old price to see it. But will this last? Some time they will wake up and decide they are paying too much for their wilse in the second for the manager of the captain of the second of them, for they haven't a bunch of loyal alumni like Princeton, Yale or Harvard.

So I think the reign of the high-priced coach is nearly over, and I hope it will come soon for the good of the game.

Lamb is Unusually Economical NOW

I SN'T it about time for another leg of lamb dinner? You'll find W. B. Diamond brand lambs very delicious now. And prices able, too. A still less expensive cut for roasting is the shoulder. Some prefer to stuff and roll it. The breast can also be cooked this way... Be sure to ask for W. B. Diamond Brand—the pick of the country's choice table lambs. Only one out of nine selected lambs is good enough to win the W. B. mark. Your market has this famous brand or can get it. Free lamb cook book sent on request.

Driver Held in Fatal Accident

Despite statements of witnesses that the blame was not his, David Lovell, Jr., 1128 West Twenty-eighth street, is being held by University division police on a charge of suspicion of mensiaushter following the death of Samuel S. Parsons, 60-year-old banker, og 921 West Thirtieth street, in an automobile accident last evening. He was a brother of George W. Parsons of 2627 Monmouth avenue, and was unmarried. Parsons stepped off the urb at the intersection of Twenty-sixth and Hoover streets and into the path of two automobiles, one of which was driven by Lovell. The victim of the accident died on his way to the Georgia-street Receiving Hospital, apparently as the result of head injuries.

Vineyardists' Association Gets Early Rule

California grape shippers especially and shippers of California citrus and deciduous fruits and vegetables are looking forward to next Monday as offering considerably more favorable shipping facilities to the East than they heretofore have enjoyed.

On that date railroads will have in effect a new tariff supplement under which, for example, grapes may be shipped eastward via Memphis and down to points as far south as Atlanta, and back up again to Virginia on through rates.

OLD OBSTACLES

Heretofore shippers have been loath to send much fruit into the southern markets because, once these, the through rate ended and it became uneconomical to forward

The first stop was at Atlanta, where Dr. Lewis attended the postgraduate medical and surgical conference for one week. From there he went to New York, where he was the guest for several days of Mayor Walker. On the New York executive's recent western trip Dr. Lewis performed an appendicitis operation on Charles Kerrigan, Mayor Walker. Dr. and Mrs. Lewis visited Cleveland and from there went to the Mayo clinic at Rochester, where they were entertained at the famous sanatorium by prominent staff physicians and surgeons.
